And the zephyrs whisper low

Some dear but fading story Of the sweet long, long ago;

In my old Kentucky hills.

The distant hounds make music To the hunter's mellow horn; The katydids are singing

With the frogs along the rills When the summer sun has hidden In my old Kentucky hills.

The fireflies deck the valleys And the owl from slumbers woke Has perched upon the bowers Of the tall, old, deadened oak: And all is filled with sadness

By the lonely whippoorwills, When the summer sun is hidden In my old Kentucky hills.

How happy is the countryman Who sees beneath the sod And all the wonders of our land The workings of our God! How sweet the parts of nature

When the hum of daytime stills And the summer sun has hidden In my old Kentucky hills!
